Two of William's favorite things to learn about were plants and other countries. What do you like learning about? Write or draw them below.

William learned how to take new leather and turn it into a shoe. This was a very detailed process that required cutting, shaping, sewing, and dyeing the leather. Let's see if you can make a pair of shoes! Follow the steps to make a pair of sandals.

Step 1

Find the material. You could use construction paper, thin cardboard, or flexible foam. Then, you'll need something to hold it together. Yarn or thread would be the most sturdy, but strong glue may work also.

Step 2

Make a pattern by tracing each foot on the material with a pencil. Outline your foot a little wider so your foot can fit comfortably on the material. Use a different piece of material to create the top strap. It should be about 2 inches wide and 1-2 inches longer than the top of your foot.

Step 3

Cut and color each piece.

Step 4

Attach the top strap to the bottom by securing the edges to the side that touches the floor. Hold the shoe on your foot and mark where the strap needs to go for a good fit.

Step 5

When your shoes are dry, wear them and see if they are strong enough to stay together!

Today, it's easy to learn about places all over the world. However, William had to search for books or articles about the land he wanted to study in order to learn about it. Even then, it would have been hard to learn very much. Use a book or article about India to find and record five facts about the country.

INDIA

Read 1 Peter 2:9. What are some ways that you can show Christ to other people through your life? Write them on the sticky notes below.

Here are some verses to help.

- John 13:34-35
- John 8:31
- John 15:8
- Matthew 5:16

Right now, Christianity is the largest religion in the world, with estimates of around 2 billion people who claim to be Christians. Other religions, like Hinduism, Buddhism, and even Judaism, are older than Christianity. Why do you think Christianity is the largest religion in the world? Write or draw some reasons below.

Let's dye some paper!

Here's what you will need:

- paper
- milk
- food coloring
- dish soap
- flat baking dish
- cotton swab
- paper towels

Step 1

Fill the baking dish with $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ an inch of milk.

Step 2

Drop different colors of food coloring all over the milk but do not mix it. It should look like polka-dotted milk!

Step 3

Dip the cotton swab in dish soap. Then, touch the cotton swab to one of the drops of food coloring and watch it react. Continue touching the dots until the milk has a layer of color on top that you like.

Step 4

Lay the piece of paper on top of the milk and let it sit for a few seconds. Then, pick up the paper, flip it over, and place it on the paper towels to dry completely. Enjoy your colorful paper!

The Bengali language is a common language in India. In fact, it's one of the most spoken languages in the world today. Copy this verse. Challenge yourself to copy at least one of the words in Bengali!

Genesis 1:2

In the beginning,

God

প্রথমে

ঈশ্বর

created

the heavens and the earth.

India is known for its flavorful food. When cooks for the East India Company learned about the foods and spices in India, they made some of their own recipes in a similar style. Curry became a popular dish in England, although it was quite different from authentic Indian curry.

Try this popular dish with your family!

Ingredients:

- 3 pounds of chicken, cut into chunks
- 1 onion, chopped
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 Tablespoon ginger, minced
- 2 Tablespoons raisins, if desired
- 1-3 Tablespoons curry powder (3 if you like spicy foods, 1 if you don't)
- 2 Tablespoons parsley, chopped
- 1 Tablespoon mint, chopped
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 Tablespoon butter
- 3 Tablespoons olive oil
- 4 Tablespoons sour cream
- Water (if needed)
- Flour or tapioca starch (if needed)

Instructions:

- Melt the butter in a large pot over medium heat and add olive oil.
- Add the onion, garlic, ginger, and curry powder and stir well, being careful not to burn it. Cook for 3-4 minutes.
- Add the chicken and stir so that it is covered in the sauce. Then add raisins, parsley, mint, salt, and pepper.
- If it seems too dry, add 1 Tablespoon of water at a time until you reach the desired consistency. If it seems too wet, add 1 teaspoon of flour or tapioca starch at a time. Bring to a boil, then turn heat down to low. Simmer for 30-40 minutes.
- Stir in the sour cream and serve over rice.

God can use anything for good, whether it is a sin or a trial. Many people who once lived sinful lives got saved and became bolder and more passionate about sharing the gospel than others who grew up in church. Some people suffered accidents that left them blind or paralyzed, and God used that trial to give them a special ministry. Can you think of someone you know who went through something hard that God used for good? Ask a family member to help you if you need it. Write or draw about what happened and what you can learn from it.

A good missionary is willing to serve God and other people without trying to get things for themselves. William was not trying to make a name for himself or live a rich, enjoyable life. His entire purpose was to answer God's call to take the gospel to the whole world. He gave his time, money, and effort to serve the people of India.

Brainstorm several ways you can serve the people around you, whether they are in your house, neighborhood, or church. Then, circle one to do today. Color the hearts as you complete the others.
